

Columbia Basin Sustainable Water Coalition
Stakeholder Meeting
Date: Thursday, October 27, 2022
Time: 10:00am-12:00pm
Location: Moses Lake City Council Chambers and Zoom

Zoom info:

<https://wastatecommerce.zoom.us/j/84225647437?pwd=M1UwN2FNdkUrRDFaRExLWkFxWGR6Zz09>

Meeting Purpose: Provide relevant groundwater information, networking, and Coalition updates for municipal and small community water system purveyors and other stakeholders

Meeting Outcomes: Increased stakeholder knowledge and understanding of relevant groundwater issues and possible solutions

Agenda:

10:00am: Welcome and Introductions

Changing the Water Budget: An Overview of Projects with Potential: wells, storage, And re-use

- Introduction and Group Discussion with Kevin Lindsey and Ben Lee
 - Town or system-specific
 - Well drilling/deepening
 - Rehab
 - Storage
 - ASR
 - Batch treatment
 - Area-wide benefit
 - Passive rehydration
 - CBP completion
 - Planning and funding considerations for system-specific and area wide solutions

Break

Water Purveyors Roundtable

- Group Discussion
 - Stakeholder opportunity to share projects/challenges/successes info

CBSWC WaterSMART Grant Activity

- Technical Coalition Project Update with Ben Lee, Landau Associates
- Coalition Organizational Update with Sara Higgins, CBDL

Wrap Up

12:00pm Adjourn

The Columbia Basin Sustainable Water Coalition, a group of water purveyors and other municipal and small community water system stakeholders, was formed in 2018 to address Columbia Basin domestic groundwater supply issues and create locally-driven recommendations that influence water delivery methods and policy that will direct resources for long-term groundwater solutions.